

Practice sewing on the lines. You can print off as many as you need and keep practicing. Remember to change your sewing machine needle when you are done because using paper will dull your needle.